

2026 FIFA World Cup Match Guide

Updated as of May 30, 2026 (12 days until kickoff)

The Biggest World Cup Ever is Almost Here!

Hello Soccer Fans!

With just 12 days until the opening match, excitement is reaching fever pitch across North America. The 2026 FIFA World Cup will be historic — the first 48-team edition, hosted across Canada, Mexico, and the United States.

Subscribe to receive updates — get the latest news, team previews, match predictions, and personalized schedules delivered straight to you.

Tournament Overview

- Dates: June 11 – July 19, 2026
- Total Matches: 104
- Teams: 48 (12 groups of 4)
- Format: Group stage → Round of 32 → Round of 16 → Quarter-finals → Semi-finals → Third-place match → Final
- Hosts: Canada, Mexico, United States (16 venues)

Opening Match: Thursday, June 11 — Mexico vs South Africa (Group A) at Estadio Azteca, Mexico City

Final: Sunday, July 19 at MetLife Stadium, New York/New Jersey

Latest News Highlights (May 30, 2026)

- Ticket sales are picking up but remain uneven in some venues. FIFA continues releasing more tickets with resale prices trending down.
- Major squads are finalized: Canada confirmed Alphonso Davies, USA named Tim Ream as captain, and Brazil is managing Neymar's fitness closely.
- Spain are the slight betting favorites, followed closely by France, England, and defending champions Argentina.
- Venue buzz is high — especially around Monterrey's mountain backdrop and the massive MetLife Stadium for the final.

Round	Dates
Group Stage	June 11 – June 27
Round of 32	June 28 – July 3
Round of 16	July 4 – July 7
Quarter-finals	July 9 – July 11
Semi-finals	July 14 – July 15
Third-place match	July 18
Final	July 19

Full Group Stage Schedule (June 11–27, 2026)

Thursday, June 11

- Mexico vs South Africa (Group A) – Mexico City Stadium
- Korea Republic vs Czechia (Group A) – Estadio Guadalajara

Friday, June 12

- Canada vs Bosnia and Herzegovina (Group B) – Toronto Stadium
- USA vs Paraguay (Group D) – SoFi Stadium, Los Angeles

Saturday, June 13

- Haiti vs Scotland (Group C) – Boston Stadium
- Australia vs Türkiye (Group D) – BC Place, Vancouver
- Brazil vs Morocco (Group C) – New York/New Jersey Stadium
- Qatar vs Switzerland (Group B) – San Francisco Bay Area Stadium

Sunday, June 14

- Côte d'Ivoire vs Ecuador (Group E) – Philadelphia Stadium
- Germany vs Curaçao (Group E) – Houston Stadium
- Netherlands vs Japan (Group F) – Dallas Stadium
- Sweden vs Tunisia (Group F) – Estadio Monterrey

Monday, June 15

- Saudi Arabia vs Uruguay (Group H) – Miami Stadium
- Spain vs Cabo Verde (Group H) – Atlanta Stadium
- IR Iran vs New Zealand (Group G) – Los Angeles Stadium
- Belgium vs Egypt (Group G) – Seattle Stadium

Tuesday, June 16

- France vs Senegal (Group I) – New York/New Jersey Stadium
- Iraq vs Norway (Group I) – Boston Stadium
- Argentina vs Algeria (Group J) – Kansas City Stadium (Arrowhead)
- Austria vs Jordan (Group J) – San Francisco Bay Area Stadium

Wednesday, June 17

- Ghana vs Panama (Group L) – Toronto Stadium
- England vs Croatia (Group L) – Dallas Stadium
- Portugal vs DR Congo (Group K) – Houston Stadium
- Uzbekistan vs Colombia (Group K) – Mexico City Stadium

Note: Exact kick-off times will be released closer to each match. Full daily schedule available on request for your favorite team.

Subscribe to receive updates — don't miss any World Cup action!